3.4.1. Outcome of Extension activities in the neighborhood community in terms of impact and sensitizing the students to social issues for their holistic development during the last five years.

3.4.1.6. Impact of Extension activities

- Extension activities meaning community services need to be integrated as part of the curriculum to develop sensitivity towards various community issues at an early age in students.
- A large number of extension or community services either alone or through affiliation or through interaction with groups for mutual benefit have been conducted by the college in the past five years.
- Various extension activities like environment protection activities, conducting health camps and campaigns, visits to orphanages and donation or cleanliness drives in adopted villages and other activities like women empowerment or increasing voting registration have been conducted that has sensitized the students and community to social issues. This has led to inculcate values and commitment to the society at large for holistic development of our students.
- Holistic development of a community or a section of society will definitely contribute to the development of the state and thus the nation at large, thus aiding in building an Aatmanirbhar Bharat.
